Lexi, as you spread your wings, go confidently in the direction of your dreams and remember "YOU are BRAVER than you believe, STRONGER than you feel, SMARTER than you think and LOVED more than you know." No matter how far away you roam, you will always be close to our hearts. Continue to shine that light of yours because your smile and laughter is contagious. We love you to bits our beautiful daughter.

Gabriel Zavarin

These pictures show you as serious, artistic, funny, gentle, charming, adventurous, and caring.

You can count on these personality traits and qualities to help you achieve anything and whatever you set your mind to. We've loved watching you become who you are, and can't wait to see where the future will lead you. We wish you all the best that you deserve for all the hard work throughout the years.

Love,
Bizma and Paaaa

Jordan Cargill

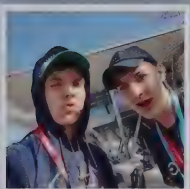

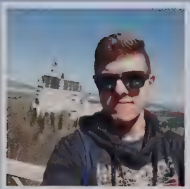

There are so many memories and trails that you have blazed, a balance of calm, ambitious and crazed, as your fan base keeps growing, we watch in disbelief, at your talent to write joy, pain, and relief.

A lyrical poet, marking paper with pen, the song of a scholar, now free to upbend any limits set, aimed to conform, the future is yours, the world's your stage to preform.

Jordan, we are so proud of your accomplishments from seminary, to the sports field, to the stage. You are an amazing son, caring brother, eager early riser, and learner of life. We can't wait to see what the next 18 years will bring for you. Here's to creativity. And here's to the rebels and misfits...

"While some may see them as crazy ones, we see genius, because the ones who are crazy enough to think that they can change the world are the ones that do."- Steve Jobs

Robert Brodin

"Well, here at last, dear friends, on the shores of the sea comes the end of our fellowship in Middle Earth. Go in peace! I will not say; do not weep for not all tears are an evil."

- J.R.R Tolkien

Love you to the moon and back

Clare Jankowski

Clare, wasn't it just yesterday I was dropping you off for your first day of preschool? You have grown up in the blink of an eye and now you are graduating. We are so proud of all you have accomplished thus far and look forward to watching you as you enter the next chapter of your life. You have become an amazing young woman and your sisters and many others look up to you. As a result, we know that you will be a success in the future. You are kind, fair, beautiful inside and out and I am extremely proud to call you my daughter. Now is the time for you to use your wings and fly, but remember that home is wherever you, your sisters, and I are. Keep that inquisitive spirit and always let kindness be a part of your decisions. Follow your dreams, whatever they may be because without dreams, life is nothing. We love you so much!!!!

Love Mumma, Caileen, and Rebecca

Ian Godzik

Ian, where has the time gone, I recall your anxiety when I dropped you for a week at soccer camp with Matt years ago- you did not want to be on your own. Now you are getting ready to head off to college, and take on all change that comes with it, your mother and I are the ones with all the anxiety. You have come so far, and pushed through many adversities, we are very proud of you and all you have accomplished. Life is all about choices, both good and bad, I challenge you to make more of the former and fewer of the later. but that is one of life's great lessons. Your mother and I faced our most difficult choice the day you were born, a bit too early- no one said you would make it, but here we are 17 years later. You have proven from that day forward that you are a fighter, and you have a will of your own.

Maybe not the biggest kid on the soccer field, but clearly one of the most passionate. Why? Because you wanted to be on a team and you were determined to give it your all. Do not loose sight of that, keep your passion and your will to fight.

You are about to embark on the next face of your journey, likely the foundation for the rest of your life- remember choices, and chose well. Take the time to reflect on your time at Rising Tide, your friends, some of who will be there for life, and learnings, both those that came from the "book" and those from life's experiences and channel them to your next steps. Don't over think it, but do give it pause. The road ahead is a long one, full of many twists and unexpected turns, stay true to you and you will be fine. Take comfort in this, we will be there all along the way and will continue to be your biggest supporters. Congratulations Ian, wishing you well and much success.

Tabitha Champney

We love you so much and know you're going to do great things. We can't wait to see what your future holds.

Owen Williams

Owen, you are a joy in our family! Your humor, kindness, and caring of others makes Dad and I so proud! You started as a 5th grade boy at RT and have become a mature gentle young man! We know you will succeed whenever you go.

We love you!

Kaitlyn Ahern

Where has the time gone? In the blink of an eye, here you are, a senior in high school getting ready to graduate! Watching you grow and sharing special moments with you over the last 18 years has been such an amazing gift. We are so proud of everything that you have accomplished and we're looking forward to seeing what adventures await you in this next chapter of your life. Stay true to yourself and follow your dreams. Always know that we're here to support you and cheer you on!

WE LOVE YOU KAITLYN! Mom, Dad, Madison, Nicholas and Dory

Zachary Tympanick

Zach,

You have been a joy since the day you were born.

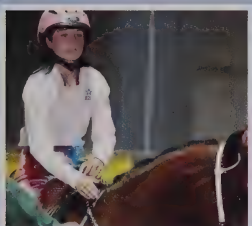

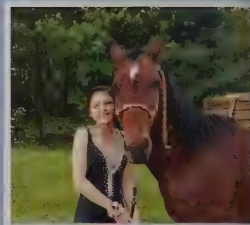

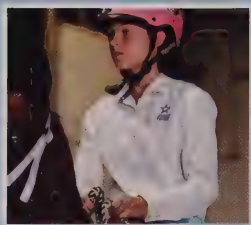

Always waking up with a smile on your face, walking downstairs and saying, "Morning, had a good rest!" You were the inventor of "Family Hug", the missing cog in our wheel. Even though you have had your moments, "Matty, don't have a nice day", your genuine love of learning, kindness and compassion for others has been the hallmark of your life so far.

We love you and are so proud of you!

We can't wait for what's to come!

Love,

Mom and Dad

Emma Valente

Keep moving forward; keep loving what you do. You are exactly where you are supposed to be. There will be struggles and moments of achievement, find the blessings in each of those moments. Don't give up, because those moments will teach you that you are stronger than you think. You are truly an amazing beautiful individual. Don't let anyone tear you down; instead feel sorry for them because they truly are lost and unable to find happiness in their lives. Walk away from the conflict and find happiness, people who are negative are lonely, broken, or bored.

While you're away at college, we'll think of you each day.

It's time to fly. Take a step forward and don't look back. If you see us cry, it's not because we are sad you are leaving, but because we know you are off to do wonderful things and we will miss seeing all of your accomplishments.

You've made us so proud.

You are braver than you believe; stronger than you think, and loved more than you know.

Love, Mom and Dad

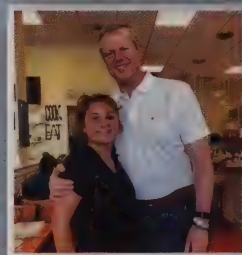

Reece Perry

We couldn't be more proud of you! You are a go-getter and your enthusiasm is endearing. One of the things we respect about you is that you are so driven. As long as everything you do comes from a place of respect, you can do no wrong. Wait, we can be more proud! And we can't wait to see you become successful and happy in each stage of your life's journey. Stay focused and make things happen. The world is your oyster, so go get yourself some pearls!!

Love you so much your favorite sister, Jessica

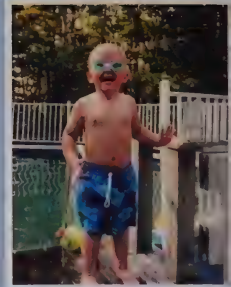

My granddaughter Carla, in your preschool years, you were my buddy. We would start the day with breakfast (4 pieces of bacon and an occasional popsicle). Then it was TV time. You preferred the morning news over children programs. Lunch time was the best. We travelled far and wide searching for the best hamburger and pizza. You had your favorites and became a celebrity at those restaurants and still are. That time with you gave me some of my most cherished memories. I love you very much and I am very proud of the young woman you have become.

Caroline Schelleng

Congratulations to our sweet Caroline! It is hard to imagine how you could be graduating from high school when it feels like you were just starting kindergarten. We are immeasurably proud of you and of all your accomplishments. You have brought passion, worked hard, and committed heart and soul to all you have done throughout high school, from Art to Latin to Science and all your activities. Most importantly we are proud of the engaging and compassionate person you are. Your kindness and warmth have made our family full and your community a better place. Keep smiling your friendly smile.

We wish you happiness always.

All the love in the world, Mom, Dad, John and Katherine.
